The screenshot shows the Cloud9 Teams invitation interface. On the left, a browser window displays the URL 'c9.io/team/inv...' and a '9' icon. The main content area has a white background with the text 'Welcome to Cloud9 Teams!', 'You have been invited to join team webclassroom', and 'You are logged in as student25.'. A green 'Join team' button is highlighted with a red rectangle. Below it, a note says 'If you would like to join under a different account, please log out first.' On the right, a blue sidebar contains a large '9' icon and buttons for 'Dashboard' and 'Log Out'. Two grey instructional boxes are overlaid: one at the top center explains that if an error message about team size appears, the account application is still successful and to click 'Dashboard'; another at the bottom right instructs to click 'Join team' to join the team.
